YOUTH TALK
We're listening

Youth Talk is a charity based in St Albans, Herts. Established in 1997 we see between 100-120 young people per week aged 13 to 25 years. Our service is free at the point of access to any young person who lives, works or receives education in the District. All young people self-refer into our confidential service.

The majority of counselling/psychotherapy will take place between 4pm and 7pm plus some additional hours. We are also looking for counsellors to help us with our Saturday service.

What we offer:

- Great working environment in our counselling centre
- Being part of a talented team of freelance counsellors
- Opportunities for longer term work with clients and group work
- Free group and 1:1 supervision
- A programme of Continuing Professional Development (CPD)
- A minimum of 6+ hours of counselling per week
- Weekly clinical team time together

Sessional Rates:

- £30 per session for your first 6-8 clients
- £32.50 per session for 9-12+ clients
